

Pierced Brooch Class

$75.00

This class will walk you thru the skills used in building an art nouveau styled brooch. During this class you will build your own brooch with a design you select among the 3 offered with different stones available. Stones color and type are limited in the design you choose.

You will learn to pierce saw your brooch, solder the pin and set the stone. Copper will be offered with the price of the class. Sterling silver will be available for an extra $25 dollars.

The class will be held in the jewelry area in the bodgery. Class size will be limited to 10 people, several classes will be available. Each class will be over 3 sessions Wednesday evenings from 7 to 10pm, Saturday mornings 9am to noon, Sunday afternoons 1 to 4 pm. Depending on number of attendee's first class will be on first week of May going thru May, new class each week till we have all who want to attend covered.